

State Of South Carolina County Of Sumter Resolution

WHEREAS, Eric Bultman is a devoted actor, director, and creative person who was humbly nurtured in Sumter County, South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bultman is not only an artistic director, but he also acts, produces, coaches, and teaches acting classes at the Sumter Little Theatre in Sumter County, South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Eric has expressed his love for art through his work with a drama program for African-American youth at the South Sumter Resource Center, a senior citizens program for the Shepherd's Center, and conceived The Women's Playwrights' Project to bring the work of South Carolina women playwrights to community audiences, and;

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Arts Commission has bestowed upon him the honor of being named the "2004 Recipient of the South Carolina Arts Commission Fellowship In Acting Award" for his brilliant and innate acting skills, his willingness to open the world of art to others, and his creative ability to influence change through artistic means.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Sumter County Council recognizes that Sumter County is a better place to live because of the outstanding contributions and services rendered by Mr. Eric Bultman. He exemplifies a life of great character, sincerity, creativity, and dependability in services to his profession, family, community, and the many families he has served during his career, as an actor, director, teacher, and community leader. May God continue to richly bless Mr. Bultman for his service to all people.

Given under the Seal of the County this 25th day of March 2003.

SUMTER COUNTY COUNCIL

ITS: Chairwoman, Naomi D. Sanders

ATTEST:

Clerk to Council, Mary W. Blanding